ONI DECLASSIFICATION/RELEASE INSTRUCTIONS ON FILE

Dear Sir:

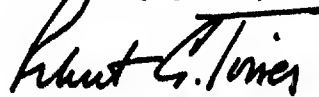

In the past members of the Central Intelligence Agency have lent consistent able support to the course of instruction at the U.S. Naval Intelligence School. The thoroughness and completeness with which various subjects have been presented have proven of inestimable value to the school.

As part of its curriculum the Naval Intelligence School includes instruction and practical application covering the Travel Folder Program. In view of the Agency's familiarity with this program it is considered a lecture, introductory in nature, by a member of the Central Intelligence Agency will greatly enhance this instruction. Accordingly, it will be greatly appreciated if a lecturer can be made available. In recent years [ ] has most capably handled this presentation.

A period of fifty minutes, commencing at 0830 on 10 April 1959, has been set aside tentatively to introduce this Travel Folder Program to the current class. This class consists of 42 officers, all of whom are cleared for access to material including Top Secret.

Hoping for your favorable consideration, I am

Sincerely yours,

ROBERT G. TOWER
Commander, U.S. Navy
Acting Director
